This document is a summary of the insurance you've bought. It includes information you or anyone acting on your behalf provided before we agreed to insure you. This includes details of the cover given, cover limits, the excesses and any changes to the standard policy wording which are specific to your own circumstances.

Based on the information you've given us, this product meets the demands and needs of your business as you've described it. We need to ensure you have the right cover now and throughout your cover, so please tell us if anything changes. If you need to make a claim and any of the details you've given are incorrect, you may not be covered.

References to You or Your include anyone covered under this insurance (e.g family members and business partners).

You should always read this document together with the policy wording.
